

5th Annual Community Collaborations Re-Entry Summit

Hosted by the Norfolk Re-Entry Council
In Partnership with Old Dominion University
Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice

Mind • Body • Spirit

Ted Constant Convocation Center
4320 Hampton Blvd
Norfolk, VA 23508

9-24-2018

8:30am - 4:30pm

Registration now open, click the link below!
Cost: $25.00

[https://secure.touchnet.com/C21192_ustores/web/product_detail.jsp?PRO
DUCTID=122&SINGLESTORE=true](https://secure.touchnet.com/C21192_ustores/web/product_detail.jsp?PRO
DUCTID=122&SINGLESTORE=true)

The Community Collaboration Re-Entry Summit is a one-day conference designed to address the needs of those individuals who have been justice involved. This event promotes the exchange of information among re-entry stakeholders to foster collaboration and strengthen our ability to make a difference in the community. Join us for an information packed day that includes various sessions, keynote speakers and a great networking opportunity!

Contacts: Madonna Flores, Madonna.Flores@norfolk.gov * 757-664-7799
Kathryn Hall, Kathryn.Hall@vadoc.virginia.gov * 757-785-3746

General Session

Incarceration and Social
Determinants of Health

Breakout Sessions

The Victim Impact Program

Empathy, Accountability and Making Amends

Jobs for Life and the Church

The Pathway to
Re-Entry

Creating a Youth Friendly Training Environment to Employment

Closing session will include a panel discussion with justice-involved individuals whom share their stories about navigating struggles and achieving success.

The general session will include a panel discussion with doctors whom share their knowledge on incarceration as a social determinant of health. Panelist are specialized in providing care at correctional facilities, mental health, opioid addiction and working with justice-involved women.